PART TIHRD OF A NEW ANGLO-CHINESE DICTIONARY, QUARTE REV. W. LOBSCHEID.

THIS WORK was communeed in November end of 1868, comprising in all 2,000 large quarto pages. Much care has been hestewed on the work to render it useful, both to the Merchant and to the Student of the Chinese and English languages. Articles of Trade, Objects of Natural History, all the articles to be obtained in the Chinese Market are given with their Chinese aquivalents. The work is offered in heards. The best Bookbinding Establishment in China being con nected with this Office, parties desirous of having their copies strongly or elegantly bound will please to intimate the same. Missionaries supplied at Trade Price. Daily Press Office, Hongkong.

CHIANG-TING-CHUN and others baving intimated their intention to establish a Rice market in the west gate of Toong-koo-CHIK, at Kook-fow, Onntou, the District Magistrate addressed the Superintendent of Harhours on the subject, who, after making on-quiries, made a report in favour of the proposed project. It therefore has received the countonance of the authorities, and a notification ng has been issued. This will be a step of great importance in T the interest of rice dealers, and will be a great boon to the publicat large. Rice merchants not the bishop of the town. Major Barber, of the Madras army, has in-rented and constructed a very ingenious instru-nient called the Circumference, to take the phice of the magnetic compass. This instru-ment has proved very useful in recent survey operations, and the services rendered by Major, Barber in this matter are (according to a Government minute promulgated in Madras) to be brought to the special notice of the Scoretary of State for India.

Lord Napier of Magdala, in replying to the address read to him by the City Chamberlain at the Guildhall, expressed his sense of the great value which he attached to the honour con-ferred upon him by the Corporation of the ferreit upon thin by the torporation of the largest and most distinguished divideommunity in the world. He spoke with modesty of his own share in the triumph of the Abyssinian expedition, and enlogized the conduct of the troups under his command.

to Williams, f BEYOUTING INGUATITUDE -A man named Blane Gonnett, aged 32, has just been tried at "I the Court of Ansizes of the Ain for murder. the violin was Madame Humbert Ferrand, who resided at the chateau of Conzina with her hasband, a gentleman well known in French literary circles, and the unther of the libretto of Berlioz's opera of the Trogens, M. and Madame Ferrand had a children of their own. and had adopted the prisoner when a child two years old. He was at that time in a mendicity to asylum, his mother having been abandoned tis with a large family by her husband. The boy the soon munificated the most powerse instincts. Ho was expelled from several schools at which he had been placed. At the age of 18 he eulisted in the army, and served in the Crimes: In 1850 he was condemned to a year's imprisonment for theft, and in 1850 to a second sentonce of tan years for a similar offence. His. misrouditet did not however, seem to have weakened the affection of Madeuic Forrand for him. During his configuratent she procured for him what in Inlegences she could, and by her intercession obtained his release in 1867. Him had already made a will instituting him her solo legated, and wishing to present him from relapsing into idleness and licentiousness, took thes him to reside at the chateau of Consien. There he refused to pursue any occupation, his disordain knew no bounds and he even threatened the lives of his benefactors when they refused to provide him with money for drink and debauchery. In May hat he left the obxtean for Geneva, and a fortuight later, having squardered the money he had received on his leparture, he came back to Conzieu, broke into the residence at night, and, after stranuling Madame Ferrand, plundered her room of first refused to accept un advocate to defend him, saying that he wished to he sent to the wrifold. He was now sentenced to death.

Hongkong, Friday Evening. The Drug market looked firmer at the opening this morning, with some transactions at $6175 for Patna and $5074 for Denares, on credit terms to the natives, but on arrival of the steamer from Macac more sellers appeared, and prices eligitly received. The following and prices eligitly received. The following may be taken as the closing rates:—Patra self-1 cash and $6174 on time. Benares 56124 cash and $6074 on credit. Patra 9th sales to arrive at $6274, with more selfers than buyers. A fair demand from hat the countries for Malay crists has held as Not- tive quarters for Malwa exists, but holders. kan | vendily meet every offer at 2645 to $655, with reduction in weight. Imports per steamer Arratoon Apear aml American about 2,015 chests Patna, and 375 chest Benares, total 2,890 chests. Business in the other branches of trade has been at almost a complete standstill to-day badly We hear of no transactions in Piece Goods fair whatever, and not a sale of Haw Cotton. There lse of has been some business among the natives, ented which is given below, but so for as foreigners are concerned there has been nothing doing. There is nothing to report in Shares, the little lias activity in Banks having quite subsided.
